IRAN

Teaching the Bible, telling others about Christianity or praying to Jesus could lead to being arrested in Iran. More people are rejecting Islam and choosing to follow Jesus, but there are dangers: authorities raid house churches and many leaders have been sent to prison.

PRAY THAT...

- Christians in Iran will have wisdom and boldness as they seek to share their faith with others.

SAUDI ARABIA

Saudi Arabia is a deeply Muslim country and laws state that leaving Islam carries the death penalty. Although courts have not carried this out in recent years, the very small number who do choose Jesus tend to keep their Christian faith hidden.

PRAY THAT...

- Secret Christians will know God's peace and find ways to meet and grow in their faith. Pray for boldness in sharing about Jesus.

QATAR

The only churches allowed in Qatar are for foreigners. The small number of Qatari Christians are not allowed to go to those services or have their own church buildings. Most converts will keep their Christian faith a complete secret, as Qatar doesn't officially recognise conversion from Islam.

PRAY THAT...

- God will use the World Cup to prompt the authorities to allow Qatari believers greater freedoms.

MOROCCO

Those in Morocco who convert to Christianity from Islam face persecution. Nadeen* converted to Christianity from Islam and she couldn't tell her family – but they were angry. Her father beat her. Nadeen pretends that she's still Muslim.

PRAY THAT...

- Secret Christians like Nadeen, will be encouraged and share their faith.

PERSECUTION WORLD CUP

PRAY WHEN THEY PLAY

The 2022 World Cup in Qatar features seven countries that are on the current Open Doors World Watch List – a ranking of countries where Christians face persecution for their love of Jesus. We've marked these countries on this wall chart so you can 'pray when they play'. Use the prayer points below during games and when filling in scores to help tackle persecution during the World Cup!

TUNISIA

The risks involved in converting from Islam to Christianity in Tunisia are huge. Women can face forced marriage and house arrest, while the dangers facing men include physical attack, death threats and social isolation.

PRAY THAT...

- Christians at risk of persecution in Tunisia will be guarded from harm, strengthened in faith and empowered to share God's love with those they meet.

MEXICO

In Mexico, criminal groups control large parts of the country, and Christians who speak out against their corruption and violence are targeted. Then there are those who leave indigenous tribal religions to follow Jesus – they are often excluded and forced out of their communities.

PRAY THAT...

- Christian converts and those being targeted by gangs will know God's protection, love and courage.

CAMEROON

There has been a civil war going on in Cameroon since 2017 which has preoccupied the government, meaning there is less security in the north of the country where the extremist Islamic group Boko Haram is active. This is making Christians in the region more vulnerable to violent attack.

PRAY THAT

- That the government in Cameroon will be stirred and equipped to counter the threat of extremists.
