

ERITREA

In Eritrea, many Christians are arrested and put in prison.

Prisons in Eritrea are horrible places. Often the prisoner's family doesn't even know which prison their family member is in. They must be so worried and anxious!

Sometimes Christian prisoners are told they will be let out if they say they are not a Christian. But many brave Christians refuse to do this.

And, despite the danger, more and more people in Eritrea are deciding to follow Jesus.

"Now, more than ever before, people, especially young people, are coming to Christ," said one church leader. "Persecution has not stopped the church."

Prayer: Lord, thank You for the brave Christians in Eritrea. Please look after all those in prison, as well as the families who miss them so much.
